EVIDENCE OF PLANTERS IN CONDEMNATION SUIT

Large Clearance on Criminal Calendar

—Motion for Power of Attorney—Frank Pahia Answers Complaint.

Many cases of small importance were cleared off the criminal calendar of the First Circuit Court yesterday without the progress of trial. Witnesses against Victor Gunn, assault and battery, could not be found and he was not prosecuted.

Hun Chun and nine others, appealing from $10 fines in the District Court, had the same good fortune of non-appearance of witnesses. Mr. Douthitt requested continuance of their case, but Mr. Brooks contended successfully for the complete rights of defendants which include a speedy trial. Another batch consisted of H. Sitaro and six others, whose accusers reached the court precincts just after Judge Gear had given the same orders as in the other cases—to go and be good.

Abraham Pull pleaded guilty to larceny second degree, in stealing a revolver and $30, and four persons charged in the same indictment were not prosecuted. Judge Gear sentenced Pull to hard labor for six months.

Sentence was suspended over James Ward, who pleaded guilty of two indictments for larceny second degree.

Judge Robinson directed a verdict of acquittal of M. H. Kauwe and Mrs. M. N. Manuel for lack of evidence.

The Trustees of the Queen's Hospital have filed a motion to require Mrs. McCully Higgins to answer whether she has in her possession a power of attorney executed to E. O. White. In the affidavit it is alleged that White did hold such a power of attorney, but named it to the attorneys of Mrs. Higgins, who refuse to return the document. This is the suit in which plaintiff seeks the return of a note for $60,000, held by the hospital, and for which she had received no consideration.

An answer has been filed by the defendant in the case of Pulapaka Malama Guerrero vs. Frank Pahia, in which he admits the purchase of the property alleged to have been fraudulently obtained, but says that he paid her $100 in cash for it, and that the deed was executed freely, voluntarily and understandingly.

In the United States District Court, besides what was reported in last issue, evidence for the Honolulu Plantation Co. was given yesterday by W. W. Goodale, manager of Waiaina plantation; G. F. Renton, manager of Ewa plantation; A. Ahrens, manager of Oahu plantation; J. T. Crawley, agricultural chemist; L. A. Thurston, plantation promoter, and James A. Low, manager and representative of the defendant company for the purposes of this action. Mr. Castle's estimates of $250,000 for the leasehold under condemnation and $443 to $445 an acre for the land itself were reported yesterday.

Mr. Thurston gave the value of the arable land at $600 to $700 an acre. The leasehold was valued by Manager Ahrens at $275,000 and by Manager Meyer of Waiaina, who was on the stand when the Bulletin went to press, at $300,000.

BASEBALL LEAGUE.

There was a meeting of the various athletic club delegates in the rooms of the Honolulu Athletic Club for the purpose of forming the 1902 baseball league. The clubs were represented as follows: Honolulu Athletic, P. Gleason; Malle (Hina) Geo. Lucas and Carl Taylor; Custom House, Seaton and Gay; Artillery, Mr. Berg; Elks, F. M. Brooks and Al Moore.

There will be another meeting at the same time and place next Tuesday night when the league will be organized. It is possible that there may be eight clubs in the league. At any rate, there will be six. Notices were today sent to Kamehameha School and Punahou College, asking that each be represented.

AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS.

Every possessor of a "Kodak" or "Brownie" camera is offered the opportunity of competing for $4000 in prizes given by the Eastman Kodak Co.

The great advantages of a cosmopolitan population and beautiful scenery makes the chance of Honolulu contestants favorable and as the prizes are numerous, island amateurs will no doubt draw a large share. Honolulu Photo Supply Co. are headquarters.
